

Jon Dunham

Director/Cinematographer

255 S. Grand Ave. #517
Los Angeles, CA 90012
(213) 249-7795
jdunham@calicol880.com
www.calicol880.com

Selected Director/Cinematographer filmography

Director/Cinematographer

Spirit of the Marathon.....feature documentary on the evolution and spectacle of the famed 26.2 mile race

No Distance Too Far.....feature documentary on the 2001 California AIDS Ride Official selection for IDA's Infact Documentary festival

Cinematographer

Ed Hardy Fashion Week.....documentary short on Tattoo Artist Ed Hardy
(Dir. Monique Yamaguchi)

Where did you Sleep Last Night?.....Documentary short on skid row's SRO Housing Corporation
(Dir. Megan Williams)

Vista Hermosa.....documentary on the development of LA's Belmont Park
(Dir. Megan Williams)

Keepers of Memory.....feature documentary on hidden children of the Holocaust
(Dir. Gabor Kalman)

Tell Me Cuba.....feature documentary on the history of U.S. policy towards Cuba
(Dir. Megan Williams)

Better Off Alive.....live performance documentary with Duran Duran's John Taylor
(Dir. Ryan Eaton)

Academics

University of Southern California.....Bachelor of Arts Cinema-Television
2000

I have extensive working experience with standard and high definition broadcast camcorders such as the Sony F900, Panasonic Varicam, Panasonic DVX100(A) and Sony HDV cameras. My extensive experience with Final Cut Pro has taught me to shoot with post production in mind. I shoot to edit.

Samples of selected work may be viewed at www.calico1880.com

References available upon request